Plaintiff Susan Corine Gustafson brought this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), seeking judicial review of a final decision of the Social Security Commissioner denying her claim for benefits under the Social Security Act. (ECF No. 1). This matter is before the court on the Commissioner's Motion to Remand. (ECF No. 21). The Commissioner seeks a remand for further evaluation pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), specifically requesting that the administrative law judge be directed to "obtain supplemental evidence from a vocational expert to determine if Plaintiff could obtain other work that exists in significant numbers in the national economy" and to "offer Plaintiff the opportunity for a hearing." Id. at 1-2. The Commissioner also seeks entry of a final judgment, by separate order, ending the action. See Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292, 297-98 (1993). Plaintiff concurs with the Commissioner's motion to remand. Id. at 2.

¹ Andrew Saul is now the Commissioner of Social Security and is automatically substituted as a party. Fed. R. Civ. P. 25(d). See also 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) (providing that action survives regardless of any change in the person acting as the Commissioner of Social Security).

Accordingly, the court GRANTS the motion to remand (ECF No. 21). The Commissioner's decision is REVERSED, pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), and this action is REMANDED to the Commissioner for further administrative proceedings.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
